

Staff

I love building and derive my satisfaction by helping my client's building projects become reality, from design stage through to completion. I care that my company delivers everything that it promises to my client's and am totally committed to delivering quality, real quality, in service and production. Building is my passion and will be my life's work.

Bill Ryan, Director

Ryan & Murray Ltd employ a full time construction staff of 18 including 3 site manager/foremen, 11 qualified carpenters and leading hands, and 5 labourer/hammer hands. Many have been with the company since its inception in 1996. A nicer bunch of lads would be hard to find.